THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 7, 1910.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5.36 and sets at 6.29. High water at 6.28 a. m. and 6.56 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair, cooler tonight, with frost in low places, minimum temperature about 35 degrees. Friday fair, light north-wind to north winds.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

A meeting of the street committee of the Civic Improvement League was held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock with a large attendance present.

Many items of civic interest were discussed.

It was voted to request Mayor Peff to give special instructions to the police force of the city concerning the enforcement of the city ordinance forbidding the throwing of waste into the street. It was thought with the proper observance of this ordinance a marked improvement in the cleanliness of the street would be noticed.

It was also voted to petition the sinking fund commissioners to whitewash and paint the interior of the market house and thereby add to its cleanliness and attractiveness within, while the exterior is being so noticeably improved. Special attention was called to the mass meeting to be held April 14th and to the civic cleaning up day which would follow.

HISTORIC GAVEL PRESENTED.

Yesterday at the morning session of the Chesapeake Presbyterian Union at the Second Presbyterian Church the Historic Gavel Society presented the union with a gavel made from a piece of the magolia tree planted by Washington on the Mount Vernon estate the year of his death. Mrs. Beatty, the president, made a happy response. Last night Rev. Homer McMillan delivered a powerful address on Home Mission. His audience was thrilled and inspired with his account of the unbounded opportunity open before the church in the great home mission field.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Prof. Gilbert of Washington will give a short organ recital before the service. Dr. S. J. Woodbridge, editor of the Chinese Christian Intelligence, will be the speaker of the evening. The public is invited to this concluding service of the union.

MISSING CHILDREN.

The Washington police are hunting for Stella Dean and Walter Story, each 12 years old, who have been missing since 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning from the home of Mrs. Anna Story, in the capital city. The children left the Story home to go to school. Walter Story is the son of Mrs. Anna Story. Stella Dean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dean, and the children are cousins. A brother-in-law of Mrs. Story, Joseph F. Story, lives in Alexandria, where he manages a moving picture theater. The families to which the children belong are naturally alarmed at their disappearance and are vying with the police in endeavoring to locate them.

PICKED MAN'S POCKET.

A man was robbed of all the money he had in his pocketbook at the upper end of King street, near Spring Park, yesterday afternoon. The victim was in the company of a young man of this city, and people who witnessed the robbery say the thief put his hand in the man's pocket, took out his pocketbook, rifled it of its contents and then replaced the book in his companion's pocket. Several bystanders called the man's attention to the procedure, but no policeman being near, the thief was allowed to walk away. The latter, however, is known.

CARRIAGE OVERTURNED.

A carriage in which Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rutledge were seated ran into an excavation at Queen and Columbia streets shortly after 8 o'clock last night and was overturned. The occupants and driver escaped serious harm, but the horse was seriously injured, so much so that it was necessary to kill it. The shafts of the carriage were broken. A danger lamp, it is said, was burning on the barricade which marked the obstruction when it was struck by the vehicle. The team belonged to Mr. P. T. Harrington.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT.

Mr. George W. Francis, who for many years resided in this city, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Annie F. Naramore, in Washington, yesterday afternoon. The deceased was in the 74th year of his age. The interment will be made in Alexandria tomorrow at 1:15 p. m. the funeral taking place from Mr. B. Whistley's chapel.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The mission at St. Mary's Church continues to arouse piety and fervor among those who attend. Next week the services will be particularly adapted for non-Catholic friends who desire to learn the truth about Catholic doctrine and practices. Then, as now, all are cordially welcome.

PLEAD GUILTY.

Samuel Robinson, colored, who was arrested about three months ago charged with robbing the postoffice at Orange, since which time he has been in jail, was taken to Richmond yesterday by Deputy Marshal J. F. Glover, and arraigned before the U. S. Court. Robinson pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to serve two months more. He was returned to jail by the deputy marshal.

OLD DOMINION BOAT CLUB.

A meeting of the Old Dominion Boat Club was held last night in the rooms of the chamber of commerce. Two new members were elected and other business disposed of. Owing to the absence of a quorum, the election of officers was postponed.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

R. Lucian Cornell, 45 years old, a truck hand on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, stepped out of the way of a passenger train, near Quantico yesterday afternoon and was struck by a freight train and killed. The body was brought to this city last night. Cornell is survived by his wife and several children, who live at St. E. m. Alexandria county.

PERSONAL.

Mr. John A. Marshall is confined to his home by indisposition. Mrs. Haywood Davis, of Fairfax, step-mother of Mr. O. Randolph Davis, of this city, is here on a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. George S. French celebrated last evening at their home on A'ward street, the sixth anniversary of their marriage, by one of the handsomest, largest and most enjoyable of the winter's entertainments. The drawing rooms and hall were elaborately and artistically decorated with palms, ferns and great clusters of roses. Mr. and Mrs. French were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. A. J. Harris, of Henderson, N. C., sister of Mrs. French. Mrs. French wore a handsome imported costume of black lace and sequins, her costume bought was of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Harris was most becomingly gowned in yellow satin. The game of the evening was progressive euchre and the beautiful prizes were awarded Mrs. John Marshall Jones, Mrs. Obae. E. Nicol, Mrs. George Uhler, Mr. Wm. J. Bette, Dr. T. B. Ouchran, Dr. T. M. Jones and Dr. L. S. Green. Mrs. Clarence Howard and Mrs. Richard Gibson kept the score.

Miss Katherine Griffith Uhler very delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at her home on Cameron street at a bridge luncheon, the guest of honor being Mrs. Dowan L. Wilson, of Georgetown. The pretty prizes were awarded Mrs. Wm. J. Bette, Mrs. Lawrence Stabler and Miss Pauline Nicol.

Miss Eleanor Lindsay, of Richmond, is spending this week as the guest of Miss Gay Lloyd in this city.

Mr. J. T. Johnson, who has been quite sick, is able to be out again.

Mrs. W. R. Purvis and Miss Margaret McG. Ashby are at Atlantic City.

Mrs. M. Adamson has returned from Baltimore where she spent the past few weeks.

FREE KINDERGARTEN.

The annual meeting of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten board will be held at the Young People's Building, at 8 p. m., Monday, April 11. The business meeting will be short. Miss Ship, of Washington, will give an illustrated talk with slides on "Gardening." Miss Watkins, director of the Washington kindergarten, will speak briefly on nature work in the kindergarten. The talks will be illustrated by the singing of nature songs by young ladies from the Washington Normal Kindergarten class. There is no admission fee, but a most cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

OPERA HOUSE.

As an added feature to the performance the last half of the week, Joseph Moore, a vocalist of unusual ability, will be heard in a repertoire of late hits. An Log Foo also promises a new sensation in his line of entertainments. Under new management, the house is doing a capacity business and the splendid performance given is being highly commended. A special children's matinee is announced for Saturday.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

Professor Gebert, the celebrated organist of Washington, will give a short recital tonight at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Prices of fish were firm again today with limited receipt. The gilliers of this city report small catches.

An abandoned telegraph or telephone pole standing in front of No. 214 north Patrick street should be removed.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Christian A. Heinke, and Charlotte J. Jordan both of Haymarket.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Great Falls Power Company, for the election of directors, etc., was held at the office of Mr. O. C. Carlin today.

A civil service examination for sub-clerical positions was held in this city today, conducted by Messrs. N. L. Williamson and R. T. Lucie. There were 8 applicants—4 white males and 4 colored males.

Meetings of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company and the Friendship Volunteer Firemen's Association were held last night. No business of general interest was transacted by either organization.

The west dial of the clock in the City Hall steeple was accidentally broken yesterday afternoon while the work of "frosting" was in progress. A new dial will be ordered. The dial on the north side was broken several months ago but has been replaced with a new one.

The warm weather of yesterday was followed early last night by a heavy down pour of rain. Later the wind changed to the west and cooler conditions followed. The weather today has been crisp and cool with a brisk northwesterly wind.

Bank Robbed.

Juliet, Ill., April 7.—Three men were shot one fatally, in a fight at Mason, Ill., today following the robbery of the Bank of Coal City at Coal City, Ill., by five masked yegmen who had with them $1,200. They boarded a south bound Santa Fe train, and the authorities at Mason were not fired. A posse stopped the train and five men aligned and began firing. In the revolver fight that followed one of the men received slight wounds. Another was shot through the head and will die. The other two escaped. The wounded men deny that they participated in the robbery.

J. and T. O'Connell's Fine Lustral Oils and Black Russia Lustria Pumps and Oxforas, Welds and Tarn's price $5.00; our price $4.00. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

MATTER OF REGRET.

Life is a matter of surprise, but one of the greatest is the news in the Gazette of Wednesday that Mr. L. S. Kirby was to resign as president of the Alexandria Electric Company and be succeeded by Mr. O. L. Howell, of Exporia. As a cor. u. n. r. I hardly believed such a thing possible, knowing Mr. Kirby and realizing the respect and confidence reposed in him by the majority of Alexandrians from which this company draws its substance. I believe I echo the sentiments of all the consumers of this corporation when I say that no man in public life stands higher in the estimation of those with whom he deals than Lee Kirby. His life has been devoted to the electric business, every touch of his being is electrical, his ways have their electrical effect and he has installed the system in places in which there was the slightest hope. Having been in our midst for 21 years he knows our people and it is a matter of regret that he is to depart from them May 1. When he took charge of this plant 10 months ago complaint was king of the hour and since he has been superintendent everything has been as smooth as the Dyke when the Indians left for home. Not to be in any way suggestive, it is apt to say that the Alexandria Electric Co., in recognition of Mr. Kirby has lost a mechanic of unquestioned ability, the consumers a warm friend, and the city a man who protected his company and at the same time conducted himself with a demeanor which demanded respect and enlarged business. I may be mistaken but I really believe that the acceptance of this resignation is a mistake the Alexandria Electric Company will only regret once and that is a life time. I wish Mr. Kirby that luck which will come to all true men who are as clean in their demeanor and dealing as he has been.

Tugboat Captain Slain.

New York, April 7.—John Platt, forty-three years old, of No. 33 Hudson street, Jersey City, captain of the tugboat Robert Robinson, was shot and instantly killed on the deck of his vessel yesterday afternoon. Charged with firing the shot which killed Platt, Alvin O. Collins, thirty-nine years old, in command of the coal barge Joel, which was to have been towed by the Robert Robinson to New Haven, is a prisoner in the east 126th street station. The killing of Platt took place in East river, near Astoria. Collins, Quartermaster Feinberg asserts, said that he killed Platt because the tugboat captain attempted to assault his wife, Solina, during his absence.

Bishops to Take the Stump.

Paris, April 7.—Catholic bishops in France are today taking a more active part in politics, in preparation for the election of April 24, than ever before, as the result of permission from the pope for them to take whatever step they deem advisable for the protection of the interests of the church. A number of the candidates for the Chamber of Deputies are known to be antagonistic to the Catholic Church and the bishops plan to "take the stump" against them.

Report of Explosion Confirmed.

San Francisco, Cal., April 7.—A wireless despatch from Captain James O. Gilmore, of the armored cruiser Maryland, confirms the report that defective boiler tube on that vessel blew out yesterday killing one fireman and very seriously wounding two others. The Maryland is enroute to the Mare Island navy yard where the injured men will be landed.

Presidential Boom to be Launched.

Chicago, April 7.—The presidential boom of Governor Hudson Harmon, of Ohio, will be launched in Illinois tonight when the Illinois Democratic League will adopt the slogan "Harmon and Harmony" at its annual banquet. Governor Harmon will not attend, as the Illinois legislature is in session, but he has sent two letters bearing upon the political issues of the day which will be read at the banquet.

SPEAKER CANNON A "WET."

Speaker Cannon has gone "wet," like his home town of Danville, Ill. He confided the fact to Representative Burdett, of St. Louis, yesterday. He said he had been schling for some time to go out west and make speeches in opposition to the "dry" movement. He particularly wanted to jump into the fight against the prohibitionists or local optionists in his home town, but thought it impolitic to do so because it seemed to him a cinch the town would go dry, owing to the strenuous campaign the prohibitionists had been making there for weeks. Women and children had been holding daily and night rallies, prayer meeting and temperance parades, and the speaker thought it was up with the "wets."

Their unexpected victory Tuesday tickled the speaker immensely. In fact, it made him feel so good he forgot his caution, and he announced yesterday to Dr. Bartholomew just where he stood on the booze question. It has been long known in Washington and elsewhere that in practice Mr. Cannon was not a temperance crank. But when he is politically on the liquor question had been something of a mystery until today.

HOTEL MEN ANXIOUS.

Through an evident oversight by the lawmakers who passed upon and accepted the Byrd liquor law, the question as to whether or not the hotel bar is to be legally licensed has come up in Richmond and is creating much interest and some trepidation in hotel circles of the State. The granting of license to retail liquor dealers is specified along with other branches of the business in the law, but nothing is said regarding hotel bars, and the State authorities will grant no licenses until an opinion is given in the case by Attorney-General S. W. Williams.

The new year begins on May 1, and the opinion is anticipated within a few days.

SAMUEL A. MOORE.

Fire on a Steamship.

London, April 7.—One of the most brilliant feats of seamanship on record, 900 passengers from the British steamship Cairnora, bound from London to Portland, Maine, were transferred from that ship, which caught fire today in the English Channel, to the British steamship Kanawha.

The transfer took place in mid-channel while the sea was running heavy and deep; the panic of the Cairnora's passengers, it was accomplished without a serious mistake.

Capt. A. Stokoe, of the Cairnora and Capt. J. Kellman, of the Kanawha, who superintended the transfer, conducted the work with military precision and to their brilliant generalship is due the fact that hundreds of the Cairnora's passengers were not either burned on the vessel or crushed in the panic.

The crew of the Cairnora, under orders from the captain knocked down and severely injured those who held the first wild rush for the life-boats, thereby installing each ferried to the others that it was possible to man and load the life-boats with some semblance of order.

Many of the Cairnora's passengers were on the point of jumping overboard in their terror and were either forcibly restrained by others or reassured by the megaphone messages of members of the crew that there would be no danger if order were preserved.

The Kanawha was but a short distance from the Cairnora when the flames were discovered and she immediately put to the disabled steamer's assistance.

A ter the last of the passengers were safely aboard the Kanawha, the fire aboard the Cairnora was got under such control that the vessel was able to put back to Dover. The Cairnora belonged to the Cairn Line and was of 8,960 tons.

"They come high." "The best are the cheapest." Our people wait them and we say to the ladies you can see J. & T. O'Connell's Exclusive Styles at 422 King street, J. A. Marshall & Bro.
